

25th Annual Canada Issue

Committed to Canada and the Chemical Industry

MAGAZINE

Chemical Week is the leading source of news and business insight for the global chemical industry. Our commitment to reporting exciting worldwide market opportunities continues with the 25th Annual Canada Country Focus Report.

With over 100 years of market dominance, Chemical Week is the magazine of choice for senior management and key decision makers in all aspects of the chemical industry worldwide.

Show your commitment to the Global Industry

Chemical Week's Annual Canada Country Focus report is an overview of the Canadian chemical industry, covering:

- Effect of low crude and political environment on petrochemical capital investment and NGL production
- Opportunities and challenges brought by lower oil prices and surging production in the United States.
- Ongoing expansion plans in Canada's western and eastern petrochemical production hubs.
